

Weekly News

Week of: February 8, 2010

Memory: The 10th Commandment: You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor. What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not entice or force away our neighbor's wife, workers, or animals, or turn them against him, but urge them to stay and do their duty. This will be a fill in the blank test!

Reading: This week we will be reading the story "Roxaboxen" there will be a test on Friday. Please keep encouraging your child to be reading the story during the week.

Math: We will be working on following and reading a recipe, subtracting a multiple of 10 from a number using mental computation, estimating differences of two two-digit numbers, squaring numbers, identifying perfect squares, finding the area of a square, simplifying expressions with exponents of 2, showing three and four-digit numbers using base ten blocks, writing three and four-digit numbers for a picture, and subtracting 3 and 4.

English: This week is a review week. We will be spending time reviewing spelling sounds and patterns, suffixes, author's point of view, contractions, articles, verb tenses, plural nouns, sensory adjectives, contractions, sentence combining, and other things that need additional reinforcement with the class.

History: We are headed to the land of Rome!! We will be learning about Romulus and Remus, Roman gods and goddesses, the Roman Republic, and the Punic Wars. This should be a very fun and exciting time for our class! Many seem very excited about our new topic!

Notes and Reminders

- The list for our class auction basket will be up next week. If you are able to help purchase things for this, your help would be greatly appreciated.
- Have you attended any field trips this year? If so please bring a disk with your pictures into me or the office so they can be used in the yearbook.
