

Weekly News

Week of: January 18, 2010

Memory: The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously. Psalm 37:21

Reading: This week we will be reading the story "A Cloak for the Dreamer" there will be a test on Friday. Please keep encouraging your child to be reading the story during the week.

Math: We will be working locating and naming points on a number line, drawing a bar graph, writing and drawing equal groups stories, identifying and drawing lines of symmetry, and writing division problems in three ways.

English: We will be working on fantasy making inferences, verb tenses, place and location of words, prefixes, and the /i/ sound. *We are also going to start being pen pals with a 3rd grade class in Lancaster, Ca. (My hometown) most of the class is excited. The part that is not so exciting for some is that the class is all boys! Anyway, this should be a fun project for our class!

Science: This week we will be talking about John Muir, habitats, and ecosystems. Your child was given information for their Endangered Animal Report. Reports are due February 3rd! Please encourage your child to be working on this and not putting it off.
