Week of: January 25, 2010

Memory: The 8th commandment You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor. What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not tell lies about our neighbor, betray him, slander him, or hurt his reputation, but defend him, speak well of him, and explain everything in the kindest way.

Reading: This week we will be reading the story "Picasso" there will be a test on Friday. Please keep encouraging your child to be reading the story during the week. We are almost done writing our book! This book is titled "God Rules: What God Means To Me and Favorite Bible Verses of 3rd Grade" This book has been written and illustrated by the class and will be published into a book. Please look at the attached form and fill it out and return it back to me. Please do this even if you do not wish to purchase a copy. Just so you know, this will be your only chance to purchase the book.

Math: We will be working on equal groups, lines of symmetry, writing division problems, dividing by 10, 7, and 1, and quotients

English: We will be working on the /o/ sound, multiple meanings, comparing and contrasting, plural nouns, figurative language, and writing a letter.

Science: This week we will be finishing up talking about ecology and the animal kingdom. We will be going over things that we did not get to during the past couple weeks and things that the class needs to go over. Remember that the Endangered Animal Reports are due February 3rd!

Notes and Reminders

- Congratulations to the following students who were in the school wide spelling bee: Japeth, Jaime, Jedd, Marcelo, Corinne, and Vanessa!
- Have you attended any field trips this year? If so please bring a disk with your pictures into me ASAP so we can get them used for the yearbook and for a possible slide show for open house.
