

Weekly News

Week of: December 12, 2011

Memory: For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6

Reading and Language: We will be working on blending, spelling and sounds of the letters k, r, u, and g, listening for vowels, extending sentences, final consonant substitution, counting syllables, beginning and ending sounds, and reading the following decodable books: Picnic, Nat's Nap, Ron on the Run, The Bug, and Sinbad the Pig.

Math: We will be working on numbering a clock face, showing time to the hour, adding 2 to an even number, adding 2 to an odd number, covering a design with pattern blocks, sorting, counting, and recording the pattern blocks used to cover a design, and looking for a pattern to solve a problem.

Notes and Reminders

STAR OF THE WEEK

This week's star is Mr. Alex Fernandez!!

- From now until Christmas, Calvary has Wednesday evening Advent services and soup supper. Soup Supper is at 5:45 and church is at 7. I would love for you to come join us for fellowship, worship, and celebrating the birth of our Savior!
- We will have a class Christmas party on December 22nd. The kids all have stockings. If you would like to bring in a small thing for your child to put in the stocking you may. Please keep it under $. You can get many multipack things at the dollar store. This is optional for you and I will be putting in a couple things as well. ☺
- On Wednesday, December 14 please do not order lunch for your child or send them to school with lunch. Raeleen would like to celebrate her birthday with the class by bringing in Pizza and drinks for lunch.
