

Weekly News

Week of: November 16, 2009

Memory: The Fifth Commandment and Meaning: You shall not murder What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not hurt or harm our neighbor in his body, but help and support him in every physical need.

Reading: This week we will be reading the story "Urban Roosts" there will be a test on Friday. Please keep encouraging your child to be reading the story during the week.

Math: We will be working identifying place value to hundreds, writing three-digit numbers in expanded form, adding two-digit numbers using mental computation, naming line segments, identifying scalene, isosceles, and equilateral triangles, and identifying a missing digit in an addition problem.

English: We will be working on the /ow/ sound, word concept, capitalization of places, topic sentences, and working on our writing skills.

Science: We will be coming to an end of our exploration of the human body. This week we will be focusing on senses, taste, and sight.
