

Weekly News

Week of: November 2, 2009

Memory: The 4th Commandment and Meaning Honor your father and your mother. What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not despise or anger our parents and other authorities, but honor them, serve and obey them, love and cherish them.

Reading: This week we will be reading the story "City Critters" Please encourage to read the story at home during the week, even if there is no reading assignment. There will be a test on Friday!

Math: We will be working on listing combinations, addition facts of 5 and 6, counting quarters, writing story problems for addition and subtraction number sentences, and finding half of a set of objects.

English: We are working on /er/ and /or/ sounds, categories, drawing conclusions, commas in a series, organizing expository text, and working on improving paragraph writing.

Science: We are exploring more with muscles, joints, reviewing the purpose of the skeleton, and bones. The students were given information for a bone test. They need to know the bones that they labeled and where they are located. The bone test is on Friday, November 13th!

Notes and Reminders

- Book reports are due on Monday, November 2nd! Your child is free to choose any project they want. Remember, projects can only be done once! Please remember to run ideas not on the list by me before you do them!
- A special thank you to Mrs. Olivia who planned and organized our fall party! Also, many thanks to all the parents who assisted throughout the party! Your help is greatly appreciated!

Upcoming Events

- Just a reminder that we are ordering Christmas shirts for the Christmas program. All students need to have a shirt. Money and shirt size is due ASAP!
- November 16th is our next field trip. We will be taking a bus with 2nd grade to the sticker factory. Please make sure permission slip and money are turned in.
