

Weekly News

Week of: October 12, 2009

Memory: Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor me. Psalm 50:15

Reading: This week we will be reading the story “The Legend of Damon and Pythias” there will be a test on Friday. Please keep encouraging your child to be reading the story during the week. Your child received information for their first book report this week. I need to see the book they choose by Tuesday. Reports are due on November 2.

Math: We will be working on adding facts of 9, writing fraction number sentences that equal 1, identifying dozen and half dozen, writing a fraction to show part of a set, reading and writing number to 1,000 using digits, and writing money amounts using dollar and cent symbols.

English: We will be working on short-vowel sounds, word maps, main ideas, and doing some review of nouns and verbs.

History: Our journey of learning about rivers continues. This week we will be learning about dangers and navigations along rivers, wildlife on rivers. We will spend some time reviewing on Wednesday and there will be a test on Thursday! A study guide was sent home today and is also on our class blog.

Notes and Reminders

- I realize that there was some confusion with verb tenses and word structure this week. I will be coming up with a way to work with the class on this.
- Thank you to all the parents who drove and attended our field trip yesterday to Coyote Point! The kids had a blast!

Upcoming Events

- October 23rd, end of the first quarter and reward day.
- October 20th Fall Picture Day!
- October 28th and 29th parent teacher conferences.
- November 16th is our next field trip. We will be taking a bus with 2nd grade to the sticker factory. I have room for 5 adults. This is on a first come first service basis.
