

Weekly News

Week of: October 26, 2009

Memory: Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor Me. Psalm 50:15

Reading: This week we will be starting a new unit. The theme for the next few weeks is City Wildlife and we will be reading the story “The Boy Who Did Not Believe In Spring” There will be a test on Thursday!

Math: We will be working on adding multiples of 10, estimating, measuring, and drawing line segments using centimeters, ordering three digit numbers, listing combinations, and adding 5 and 6.

English: We will work on quotation marks, antonyms, writing a description, the /ar/ sounds, and commas in a dialogue.

Science: We are embarking on the journey of the human body! We will be starting with the skeletal system. We will be studying the purpose of the skeleton, parts of the skeleton, naming bones, and the composition of bones.

Notes and Reminders

- A special thank you to Pastor Bothwell who was our mystery reader this week!
 - Book reports are due on Monday, November 2nd! Your child is free to choose any project they want. Remember, projects can only be done once! Please remember to run ideas not on the list by me before you do them!
 - Monday is the last day that I will accept late work for first quarter.

Upcoming Events

- Just a reminder that Thursday and Friday are half days next week. School is dismissed at 11:30
- October 28th and 29th parent teacher conferences. Please make sure your conference forms were returned!
- October 30th-Fall Party! There is a sign up sheet on the door for people to bring things.
- November 16th is our next field trip. We will be taking a bus with 2nd grade to the sticker factory. There is room for 1 more adult. This is on a first come first service basis.
