

Weekly News

Week of: September 5, 2011

Each Friday this newsletter will provide you with information about things we will be learning the next week. Please make sure you read this letter over and mark all important dates in your calendar. ☺

Memory: "I praise you, for I am wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works" Psalm 139:14
Remember this will be said orally to me on Friday...students must say the book and chapter as well.

Reading and Language: We will be reviewing, learning, and practicing the following: blending, segmentation, exploring the letters C and D, letter sounds, writing/being a writer, and reading the story "The Purple Cow".

Math: We will be working on matching a number to a set, collecting and sorting data, using and constructing a bar graph, using logical reasoning to solve a problem, identifying morning and afternoon, identifying first, last, between, and middle, and identifying first, second, and third.

History: We have been talking about our world and increasing our map skills. We will be learning about South America, Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Notes and Reminders

- There will be no spelling words this week. ☺

• Please remember that part of your child's school supplies is a $20 supply fee. Please make sure that you send it with your child. Please talk to me if you have any questions or concerns.

Upcoming Events

- No school on Monday! See you all on Tuesday!
- There is no need to send a snack with your child on Wednesday! I will be providing one! ☺
- Back-To-School Night is Thursday, September 8th from 6:30-8:30
